Advanced Placement® (AP®) Exams are available for all 34 AP® courses. Exams are course specific rather than grade specific. The three Studio Art courses have a portfolio assessment rather than a traditional multiple-choice/free-response exam. See Attachment 15 for a description of AP® Exams. AP enables students to pursue college-level studies while still in high school. Each AP course is modeled upon a comparable college course, and college and university faculty play a vital role in ensuring that AP courses align with college-level standards. AP Exams are an essential part of the AP experience, enabling students to demonstrate their mastery of college-level course work. The College Board is a not-for-profit membership organization whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. The College Board works with over 5,700 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations, serves more than seven million students and parents and 3,800 colleges and universities in over 180 countries and territories, as well as policymakers on the national and state levels. The College Board also maintains relationships with more than 900 key school districts across the country. College Board services pertinent to this RFQ include assessments such as AP®, ReadiStep®, PSAT/NMSQT®, ACCUPLACER®, SAT®, and SAT Subject tests. In addition to its main offices, the College Board maintains six regional offices to better serve schools and districts nationwide. The Middle Sates Regional Office serves the state of New York. Staff at the national and regional levels will provide the services necessary to provide AP® Exams to districts state wide. The College Board provided AP® exams to over 1.8M students in 2010 worldwide . The College Board has the capacity to provide AP Exams to all students enrolled in AP courses in the state of New York.

Estimated Service Provider Costs (non-binding)
Fixed costs over a given academic year.	Per student costs for AP Exams are listed below: 2011-12 = $87, 2012-13 = $88, 2013-14 = $89, 2014-15 = $90, 2015-16 = $91
Per-student costs over a given academic year that are above the estimated fixed costs.	There are no per-student costs that are above the estimated fixed costs. Pricing above includes test materials, support materials, workshops, data and reports (listed in detail in the sealed Cost Estimate).

Time-and-materials costs that are limited to special services that are NOT required for standard administration during a given year (e.g., special professional development services at the start of a contract, standard setting if required, test augmentation if required, language translation fees for tests and supporting materials) and that are delineated on either a time-and-materials or a cost-per-service basis for each special service).	The College Board is open to discussing additional optional professional development or other district needs at a cost to be negotiated with the individual district. The aforementioned prices for College Board tests, services and deliverables are based on the proposed prices for the 2010-2011 school year. Any references to prices for subsequent years are solely for projection purposes and may be subject to change based on the College Board's then-current costs, policies and procedures.
