Description: Assessments are directly to either NYS Standards for the subject area or NYS Common Core Standards. Assessments mirror models provided in NYS assessments.
How administered: Pre-assessments are administered in a one period setting at the beginning of the school year. Year-end assessments are administered in a two hour window over several periods during a sequence of days or on a single day at the end of the year.
How scores are reported: Scores are reported through our student information sister, Eschool.
How implemented: All assessments are implemented using the same criteria found in the Examination Administration documents from NYSED. All exams are secured until administration day.

Please provide an overview of the student-level growth model or target setting model for SLOs for districts and BOCES, along with how student-level growth scores are aggregated to the create teacher-level scores, and how those teacher-level scores are converted to New York State's 0-20 metric.

At the beginning of the year students are given a pre-assessment which contains content from the course. Targets are set for each student to achieve a passing score on the exam. The percentage of students that meet their targets are calculated to arrive at teacher scores. At least 65% of students are expected to have met the target set for them based on their pre-assessment score. Historical assessment data will also be used to assist in the creation of reasonable targets. Teachers with percentages from 90-100 are Highly Effective (18-20 points), 75-89 are Effective (15-17 points), 60-74 are Developing (13-14 points), and 59 and below are Ineffective (0-12 points).

Assessments Woven Tightly Into the Curriculum:	Reviewed by administrators to ensure alignment
Performance Assessment:	Whenever possible students are asked to perform authentic tasks.
Efficient Time-Saving Assessments:	Year-end assessments are factored into the child's average as final exams.
