PSAT/NMSQT® is a standardized national assessment for 10th and 11th graders that measures ELA and Mathematics skills. The College Board is a not-for-profit membership organization whose mission is to connect students to college success and opportunity. The College Board works with over 5,700 schools, colleges, universities, and other educational organizations, serves more than seven million students and parents and 3,800 colleges and universities in over 180 countries and territories, as well as policymakers on the national and state levels. The College Board also maintains relationships with more than 900 key school districts across the country. College Board services pertinent to this RFQ include assessments such as AP®, ReadStep®, PSAT/NMSQT®, ACCUPLACER®, SAT®, and SAT Subject tests. In addition to its main offices, the College Board maintains six regional offices to better serve schools and districts nationwide. The Middle States Regional Office serves the state of New York. Staff at the national and regional levels will provide the services necessary to provide PSAT/NMSQT® to districts state wide. The College Board has provided PSAT/NMSQT® nationally for 51 years and delivers results in approximately 4-6 weeks from the test administration. The College Board provided PSAT/NMSQT® assessments to more than 3.5 million students in 2010 nationwide. The College Board has the capacity to provide PSAT/NMSQT® to all 10th and 11th grade students in the state of New York.
