1. Items with Suffix (Fundamentally Sound by Nov) should have been observed at a Fundamentally Sound level, at least by the first three-way evaluation in late October or early November. Any intern who is not Fundamentally Sound will: (A) receive a short-term performance goal for that item in November and December, (B) the goal will be addressed in the comments of the evaluation, and (C) the intern will be flagged for discussion with the Ed Studies professors.

Items with Suffix (Fundamentally Sound by Jan) should similarly be Fundamentally Sound by the end of January.

Items with Suffix (Fundamentally Sound by May) should be Fundamentally Sound by the end of May.

2. The Rating Scale The Rating Key is intended to guide assessment conversations; it does not translate directly to letter grades. The majority of the interns are expected to consistently demonstrate Skilled or Fundamentally Sound performance on the majority of the items by the end of May. Generally, Skilled teacher performance is all that is possible during the internship and it can earn an A. An occasional intern may demonstrate outstanding performance on an occasional item.
